Saturday People, Sunday People: Israel through the Eyes of ...

The title of Gilbert's book alludes to an oft-repeated slogan of radical Muslims: "On Saturday we kill the Jews, on Sunday we kill the Christians." Gilbert's thesis is that both Christians and Jews in the Middle East are being targeted by radical Muslims who share the widely held belief of Muslims that Muhammad was the final and most perfect prophet and that Islam has abrogated all previous religions.

Christians did not always appreciate them, but it is on the foundation of their work that Gilbert's appreciation of Israel and the Jewish people stands. A Natural Alliance. Saturday People, Sunday People is elegantly written, historically important, and politically relevant. Gilbert is correct that there is an immediate and deadly problem for Christian communities of the Middle East and that most of the world is ignorant of or unmoved by their plight.
